“A War-Torn China”

New Film Lecture Series

This new lecture series will explore 20th century China through its cinematic representations by Chinese who lived through or reflected back on the tumultuous and tragic events of their revolutionary history.

This month's film:

A young British journalist, with the assistance of a courageous Australian nurse, saves a group of orphaned children during the Japanese occupation of China in 1937.

Lecture following movie:

Catastrophe, Survival and the Way Humans are Meant to Live: 1931-1945.
